Aiolia- The positions of the Gold Saints in their entirety are determined at the time of their birth. even among the Saints, they are creatures with exceptional powers. They are beings with cosmos overflowing and that is why many of them have achieved these positions while still young. That is what it means to be a Gold Saint. A being chosen by the gods. And that's why almost all who became Gold Saints never wore other Cloth before.

Aiolia - If a bronze Saint, under these conditions, again uses his own Cloth... then the technique he has mastered is transformed into his own original powers ... and it emerges as the power of a new Gold Saint. That is providence . He that I will destroy has this providence. He lost the powers he acquired as a Bronze Saint... and trained more and more intensely, gaining the power of a new Gold Saint. And now ... the Cloth of the one who combines both powers is born again.
