

Shinhan Bank defeated Fujitsu in first match of Park Shin-ja Cup

Shinhan Bank, a women's professional basketball team, was completely defeated by Japan's Fujitsu in the first game of the Park Shin-ja Cup.

Shinhan lost to Fujitsu 55-76 in the first group match in Asan, South Chungcheong Province.

Shinhan Bank started the competition without crossing the Japanese champion Fujitsu, although new faces such as Jihyun Shin and Shin Iseul made their debut.

Beads scored the most points with 12, Jihyun Shin added 9 points and 5 assists, and Shin Eul and Lee Kyung-eun also added 7 points and 6 points, respectively. 안전놀이터

Woori Bank, which beat Hitachi earlier to win the opening game, beat BNK by five points to win its second consecutive tournament.
