فباي الاء ربكماتكذب

So which of the favors of your Lord would you deny?

Ar Rahman : 13

Tajweed refers to the grammar rules of the Quranic language. The language used in Quran has to be read and recited in a particular way. It conjoins different parts of the Arabic language to make it pronounce in a different way. Some words and syllables may look the same, but there would be a difference in their pronunciation. This is where you learn to differentiate the different elements of the language and master the art of reading accurately.
