What Are the Differences Between Internal and External Links?

When it comes to SEO, one of the most important things is links. Internal and external links are the two sorts of links. Internal links are links that lead from one page of your website to another. External links are links that lead to another website from your own.

Click to know more!