

'Before porn I was a struggling teen mum – now my kids are set for life'

EXCLUSIVE: Lola Mason was once a teen mum struggling to make ends meet but she now earns seven figures selling explicit content on OnlyFans as Mama Plugs and has set her kids up for life

Being a teenage mum is a difficult task from the financial cost, the responsibilities and even the stigma society puts on young mums.

That's what Lola Mason felt like before she became Mama Plugs on OnlyFans.

The 27-year-old revealed in a TikTok video how she once believed that she was going to be struggling through life forever after she started a family so young.

But she turned her life around and is now making seven figures and owns multiple properties – all thanks to her porn career.

She hasn't just splashed the cash on her own dreams but has made sure her kids are set for life.

In the clip, which gained more than 5,000 likes, she wrote: "I wish I could tell 17-year-old, teen mum disabled me that one day she'll be a successful model that's earned 7 figures, bought a five-bed house at 24 and owns her dream cars...

"Setting her kids up for life and buying properties specifically to house struggling/young families."

Speaking to the Daily Star about how much her life has changed, Lola said that her fortune didn't come easily but she is working hard at changing her family's lives as well as others.

She said: "My life before sex work was like most other teen mums in the UK, it was hard and with added issues of a spinal deformity daily tasks were hard.

"I was told I couldn't have kids due to having two wombs so you can imagine my surprise when I fell pregnant in my later teens! I couldn't work due to my back/bone issues, I was constantly in pain and on a high dose of morphine for years.

"My partner worked as hard as he could but things were always tight. Then I found webcamming in 2013 and my life changed, along with OnlyFans which then replaced webcamming in 2019."

Success didn't come quick, with Lola revealing it wasn't until her fifth year in the sex industry that she started earning the big bucks.

"It was so much work, seven days a week, 10-14 hour days, constantly being battled by social media who didn't want me on their platforms," she continued.

"It really isn't like people make out online or on TV shows, making big money in the porn industry takes years if ever. Some people work 10/20 years in the industry and don't even take home minimum wage.

"I spent the first half of my career sorting my life out, sorting out debts. I was only straight about three years ago so I'm very much at the beginning of my journey still and I'm so excited for what's to come."

Now her work at it has started paying off, she wants to make sure her children can live comfortably while giving help to others just like her.

She added: "I'm saving money for them to kick start them in life, ensuring they know about business and I'll be buying property for them and the house we live in will be theirs, life insurance.

Mama Plugs aka Lola Mason

"For struggling families, I buy food/clothing items for charities and food banks a lot, especially the one that helped me one Christmas when I was 20 and struggling.

"I also donate to a lot of sex worker charities, I'm also in the process of buying a property that will be affordable for young/struggling families or people who need that break.

"I really want to be the landlord I needed when I was at my lowest, a stable, good quality home with low rent and a landlord they feel they can phone if they need me. There's too much greed in the rental market."
