

Avail Full Body Health Check-UP At your Doorstep, Don't Go Outside

We all have heard that “having a healthy and fit life is more valuable than a wealthy life.” When you are fit and disease free, you can live your life fully without any fear of becoming ill. It is always good to take precautions before any ailment can attack you. That is why wise people always said “having precautions is always a better approach than going for treatment”. Karma Bhumi caretaker service is certainly the Best Nursing Bureau in Thane which offers full body check at your home. The nursing home caters to obtain efficient precautionary medical assistance to needy people.

We have improved our services to make sure that patients get hassle-less medical and health check even during the lockdown. The tragic consequences of Covid-19 pandemic have made it essential to keep tracking of your health. In this crisis time, Karma Bhumi caretaker service has come up as a troubleshooter for individuals who are looking online health checkup at home facility.

Here are the specialties of Karma Bhumi caretaker service healthcare checkup: -

We Follow All Preventive Guidelines Related to Covid-19

We understand the necessity of taking precautionary actions and physical distancing to break the chain of pandemic. Therefore, our team of technician, lab experts and executive gather samples from your residence with just one call. They abide the safety protocols of covid-19 pandemic as determined by Government of India. They are highly skilled and experienced to perform test and gather samples from your mentioned location.

Online Health Checkup Booking Facility

If you want to avail our complete body checkup service, it is easy to book our services through our website. You can easily select your preferred date and time. The lab technician will come to your residence and get sample for the lab test.

Receive Full Body Checkup at Your Residence

Being a reliable Best Nursing Bureau in Dombivali, Karma Bhumi caretaker service provide complete body check at home. Whatever the circumstances, continue to focus on your wellness. Your medical report will assist you in making lifestyle choices, including diet, workout, nutrition to preserve your body's wellness. It also supports you in initiating treatment for any medical problem identified in your assessment as a result of your tests.