In utmost cases, aspirants are only concerned about the chances of Partner Visa turndown after their operation process is done, and are staying to hear back from the Home Office. But given the charges, time, and trouble put into commodity as serious as a Partner Visa operation, our UK Partner Visa experts at The SmartMove2UK suggest taking these figures into consideration BEFORE you start applying.

According to rearmost statistics released by the Home Office 1 in 4 Partner visa operations are refused. This is an intimidating statistic given that an aspirant spends nearly£ 1200 in partner visa freights not to mention fresh freights if concluding for fast track processing. This coupled with processing times lasting 12-14 weeks makes it really disappointing to get a turndown. Indeed if you decide to challenge your UK Visa Refusal, you still end up staying for 9 – 12 months to get an outgrowth.

The grounds of turndown can vary from not furnishing acceptable substantiation of relationship or meeting the fiscal demand or furnishing applicable evidence of meeting the English language demand.

Reasons for not furnishing the documents can stem from lack of mindfulness or simply inaptly interpreting the varied Home Office guidance.

Don't end up being a statistic.

Love isn't worth a adventure but the high chances of Partner visa Turndown does make it one, and an precious bone at that. So no matter how set you suppose you're with your operation. All a partner visa turndown requires is one loose end and your time and plutocrat goes down the drain. This is why it's always recommended to consult a professional.
