

Tales of Assam: A Journey into the Heart of Assam's Finest Organic Black Tea

From the lush forests and high hills of Assam, we bring you Tales of Assam, a pure Finest Tippy Golden Flowery Orange Pekoe (FTGFOP) organic Assam tea that celebrates life. Each leaf tells a story, meticulously handpicked from the very source of Camellia Sinensis assamica—the treasured tea plant of Assam. This premium black tea is created by carefully selecting only the very tips of the most lightly golden leaves, ensuring you enjoy a luxurious tea experience with every sip.

When you brew Tales of Assam, you're unlocking delicate layers of flavor. The tea's creamy texture and malty, full-bodied taste transport you to the misty hills of Upper Assam, where this exquisite blend is handcraft by local farmers with love and dedication. The result is a tea that boasts a deep aroma and a brisk, refreshing taste—making it perfect for both morning and afternoon enjoyment.

This Assam tea can be brewed multiple times, allowing you to savor its complexity over several steepings. Start with a 2-3 minute brew for your teacup, or 3-5 minutes for a teapot, at a temperature of 100°C (212°F). As you re-steep, you can increase the water temperature and steeping time—up to 8 minutes—to further reveal the hidden depths of flavor in each cup.
