Staged Sandy Hook Shooting Confirmed By Examining Average Age of Mothers = 36

With our 109 quintillion to one odds, our Sandy Hook mothers cannot have a birth age average of 36. But it makes sense if the kids were fictions made up out of photographs of older children when they were younger. As a conjecture, we can infer that, with high probability, the photos that were used to represent the kids who died at Sandy Hook were about 10 years out-of-date, which explains why we have 20 Sandy Hook mothers who, were the story true, average an improbable 36 years age at birth.

KEY POINT: Florida is world-renowned for having the highest concentration of wealth in the world that stretches along the Gold Coast, from Stuart to the Keys. Domiciled in this same region is the greatest number of Illuminati families on the planet. The Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School is located right in the heart of this highly protected area—Broward

County, Florida. The power elite don't want to be threatened by gunowners when things start to fall apart, as they surely will.
