Shura - The sword fills with presence and explodes !!!

Page 3

Shura - Did he use the Shield Bash..... to defend himself from the rock ?!

Page 4

Shura - laah! Excalibur!

Page 5

Shura - only the shield.... stays floating ?!

Page 6

Shura - Does he control it from afar ?! No it's the shield itself that moves of its own will ?! to protect the god he believes in ?! He pinned my two arms !! now he can attack me from anywhere !!

Page 7

Kreios- Of my blows this will be the last one. All blood all cosmos

Page 8

Kreios - All life forms my blade.

Page 9

Kreios - for you a person of great courage....my eternal goodbye.

Page 11

Kreios - there's something wrong! I do not feel ... I hit him! He still....

Page 12

Kreios - is alive?! and behind me ?! what?!

Page 13

Kreios - He went through my Aster Shield... and used it as a protection for himself ?! Throwing his own armor?! Moreover, he neutralized the impact of the blow of my sword

Kreios - but at that moment there was no more Aster Shield. His unprotected fist was crushed by the blow. Now, without the armor, you cannot even attack me. And a fist without armor is not able to reach my Soma!!

Shura - Devoid of protection ... side by side with death a terrifying strain ... incites the cosmos inside me burning it to the limit ...

Page 15

Shura - Making me speed up!

Page 16

Kreios - Did he disappear ... at the speed of light ?!

Shura - Now yes. Burn it up! My Excalibur. Make my life your blade. And go against this splendid swordsman who stands before me

Page 17

Shura - Piercing the chest of this god!!

Page 18

Kreios - guuuh! he swerved from my sword-strike and looked at the only place he could reach me with his own hands. He hit his fist well into the cleft of the Soma that begets the blue divine sword!

Page 19

Kreios - But he will escape ... the sacred blood still makes me live. Then I will use all the strength left to me !! Get ready for the dunamis blade !!

Page 20

Shura - Uuoooooh!

Page 21

Shura - Double Excalibur

Page 22

Kreios - a human using double blades.... this ... would only be possible with a training that surpassed even death. It means that this power, that blade that he obtained in exchange for his soul is capable of dissecting any adversary?

Page 23

Kreios - even if that adversary is a god? It's impressive, shura. the victory is yours

Page 24

Shura - The more powerful the adversary to be faced ... the more challenged the Saint feels, who consequently becomes stronger. Who gave me the final blow ... it was just you ... because you were a sword god of great nobility ... I was able to face you.

Page 25

Kreios - So shura. Inherit my divine sword and live ... with my cosmos engraved on yours. And when eventually, come the time of your death, knife like me. Give your sword to someone you really believe in.

Page 26

Kreios - for this is the sublime destiny of those who have the blade in their heart
