

CEFR Certification - English Language Assessment Test

CEFR Certification is international standard for English skills. The international English exams associated with this certification are accepted across Europe. Clearing any such accepted global language assessment you prove your English abilities and the fact that you are comfortable with the language of English speaking countries.

English assessment test is generally based on four modules of communication. Test of proficiency in English language serves as a proof of your overall communication skills. Passing the accepted assessment test for English language learners, you are one step close to study abroad.