

Goals and Objectives of Logistics

Logistics management is the complete process of managing the accumulation, storage, and transportation of products from origin to their endpoint.