

Still Confused? What to buy “Used Phones” Or “New Phones”?

A lot of people are still confused about what to buy used phones or new phones? People are still confused due to various reasons and factors.

Used phones are in great demand in the market. But why people are still having doubts? What is causing them doubts to buy second hand mobile. Is it a good decision to buy used mobile phone or not? There are a lot of questions in every body's mind, let me clear all your doubts.

Let me start with a brief description rather than jumping directly to the topic so that you can understand better and well.

What are Used Phones?

Used Phones are those phones that are used by someone in the past for some certain period of time and due to various reasons and factors, it is available for sale at a cheap price compared to the new phones.

Currently, most of the second hand mobile phones that are available in the market are in very good condition. They are almost as good as new smartphones. But always remember, check used mobile carefully and thoroughly before buying it.

What are New Phones?

New Phones are those phones which come with a sealed pack. It is never used by someone.

A Complete brand-new phone waiting to be unboxed by you.

New phones are getting costlier day by day due to additional and power-packed features. It is not possible for everybody to afford a brand-new phone.

What to buy a used phone or a new phone?

Used Mobile Phones are cheap and most of the used phones available for sale in the market are used for very less period of time, which makes the condition of the mobile as good as a new one. And most of the used phones do have a warranty as it is used for less time period. There is less risk in buying a used phone that has a warranty because if there is any problem warranty will cover it for you and you don't have to spend single money from your pocket.

New Mobile Phones are expensive and can be affordable to fewer people and as you know the government has already mentioned in the budget that smartphone and smartphone accessories prices will increase in the coming days.

According to me, it is better to buy a used phone as you can save a lot of money and also get a good quality product too. It is far better than buying a new phone.

People also ask for:

Can you get phone insurance on a second hand phone?

There are a lot of private insurance companies in the market but not every insurance companies cover the insurance there are few insurances companies who provide insurance to second hand phones with the same terms and conditions as the new phones.

But currently, most of the phones can have insurance because most of the used products are in good condition and also use for less period of time.

Where can you get good second hand gadgets?

You can get good second hand gadgets on classified site. It is the best platform to buy second hand gadgets at a very low and affordable price. As you know most of the mobile companies are not providing accessories with a new smartphone.

You can buy accessories at a very low cost on “CIFIYAH” easily and securely. You can also sell used gadgets very easily by posting a free advertisement on the website for selling your gadget.

Is phone insurance worth getting?

Getting your phone insured is worth it because no matter how good care we take of our phone we still lose or crack our screen. Obviously, not intentionally but by mistake or by some unfortunate accidents.

Insurance helps you cover money for your phone if your phone is lost or your screen is damaged, internal minor issues etc.

How can I sell my second hand mobile phone?

To sell second hand mobile phones, we need to visit a good trusted and secured classified website like Cifiyah. Where we can post free ads to sell our used phones and interested person contact you directly and buy used mobile phones with the desired price set by you.

Where can I buy & sell second hand mobiles?

The best place to buy & sell second hand mobile online is classified sites. Classified sites are the best platform for buying & selling used phones as there is a huge number of options and various different brands of mobile phones available. Cifiyah is one of the leading classified sites to buy used mobile phones & sell used mobile phones.

