

Apply For Germany visa

Germany is a country of utmost delight and diligence, with mesmerizing infrastructure in Berlin consisting of the Reichstag parliament building, Brandenburg gate and other sites linking to WWII, Germany has a rich and vast history. German culture is widely celebrated around the world and many foreign tourists come to Germany for enticing experiences of old infrastructure and modern architecture.

Munich in Germany is popular among tourists for its beer halls, it is one of the only cities which conserve the old towns along with new towns, watching such a sight is alluring to the eyes, it gives a sense of history and the background. In winter, people spend their vacations skiing and experiencing the aura of the Alps. With tremendous scenery, Germany also has a vast range of academic courses.

Germany has some of the best universities of numerous streams in the world. A big chunk of foreign students studying in Germany are Indians, to go to Germany and make the most out of these educational opportunities this country has to offer, you will require a Germany student visa or a Germany Schengen student visa for better understanding.

What is a Germany visa?

To enter Germany for business, tourism, employment or education, a foreigner needs to have a permit to enter and stay in the country, popularly known as - a Germany visa. Germany is a part of Schengen countries, so visiting Germany requires a Germany Schengen visa. There are types of visas classified as per the requirement of the applicant and its purpose of the visit.

Types of Germany visa

Germany student visa - This type of permit is granted to individuals who are coming to Germany for studying.

Germany tourist visa - This type of short term visa is issued to the people who are visiting Germany for tourism and other leisure activities like sightseeing or exploring.

Germany business visa - This type of visa is issued to those who want to go to Germany for attending a business meeting, conferences, conventions, etc.

Germany work visa - This type of permit is issued to those who are willing to work in Germany

Germany visit/family reunion visa - This type of visa is issued if an individual wants to visit Germany to see its friends or relatives.

There are other classifications of a Germany visa too, like the job seeker visa, etc, these above-mentioned types are the most common visas for entering Germany.

How to get a Germany visa

- Prepare your Germany visa application

Find the form on the official website of German immigration, fill-up the form thoroughly leaving no blank details. Print the application form

- Fix an appointment with German mission in India

You have to fix an appointment and compile your application with your documents.

- Visit the VAC (German mission)
- Submit your application here Germany Visa
- Pay the necessary fees and your biometrics will be taken as well.

This way you can obtain your German tourist visa or German student visa and visit one of the most enticing countries in Europe.