

John and Susan Pazera knew their retirement years would look a lot different if they chose to stay in California. As sailors, John and Susan — 68 and 64, respectively — were no strangers to travel. In 2001, the couple took a three-year sabbatical and sailed down the West Coast to Central America, where they stopped in Panama. It was a moment of inspiration.

<https://aliensbloggers.com/>