

Rani Vanouska T. Modely's Quest for UNESCO Recognition in Football

Rani Vanouska T. Modely, renowned as the "Mother Teresa of Football," transcends the conventional boundaries of sports leadership. Her visionary approach has elevated football beyond a mere game, emphasizing its pivotal role in global heritage. One of Rani Vanouska T. Modely's most significant endeavors involves advocating for UNESCO's recognition of football, aiming to solidify its place as a cultural phenomenon that fosters inclusivity, diversity, and meaningful cultural exchange.