

What Does KRK Have to Say About Ranveer Singh's Bollywood Debut?

In a recent video, Kamaal R Khan made some shocking claims about Ranveer Singh's launch in Bollywood through Aditya Chopra's YRF.

Baji Rao Mastani star has been all over the news because of KRK's remarks. Before we talk about the ongoing conversation we have a secret for you, You can watch Bollywood movies and series for free online- The Mzaalo app by Xfinite(Blockchain digital platform) Mzaalo is a freemium app where you can watch movies and series for free and earn Mzaalo coins. These coins are redeemable on the app itself! Visit the app today and claim your free rewards.

Self-proclaimed critic Kamaal R Khan is known to make some nasty comments against Bollywood stars. He often gets into trouble for his controversial statements. He also had a legal case against him recently as Salman Khan accused him of maligning his image. He had a defamation case against him. Now, KRK is back to making some shocking statements. Recently he spoke about Ranveer Singh's entry into Bollywood through Yash Raj Productions.

Ranveer Singh, who is now one of the most versatile actors in Bollywood, was launched by Aditya Chopra's Yash Raj Productions in the film 'Band Baaja Baraat'. He starred opposite Anushka Sharma in it and the film was a big hit. It paved the way for Ranveer's successful career in the industry. Now, KRK has claimed that it wasn't Aditya Chopra who launched him but YRF was just the way for Ranveer to enter Bollywood.

He claimed that Ranveer's father paid YRF Rs. 20 crores to get his son launched in the industry. KRK said, "Now you must be thinking that Ranveer Singh was also launched by Yash Raj Films and he is a big star today. So let me tell you that Aditya did not launch Ranveer, but Ranveer was launched through Aditya." Further adding, "Ranveer's father gave Rs 20 crore to Aditya and after that YRF launched him."

