

East Coast Furniture Services, LLC

East Coast Furniture Services, LLC is a business in New Castle, DE that specializes in office furniture repositioning. This company has been in business for 30 years and employs many experienced staff members. Their staff is committed to providing excellent customer service and can assist you with any office relocation needs. Contact them today to learn more about their services. Located at 544 Main Street in New Castle, DE, East Coast provides a wide range of office solutions.

If you are looking for a furniture installation company, consider hiring the best. Commercial movers and installers are able to advise office owners on the best decisions for their businesses. They also offer project management services and commercial moving and storage. If you're considering a move to a new office, consider using a furniture installation company. They have the experience necessary to make sure everything goes smoothly. They will also handle all the moving and storage.

East Coast Furniture Services offers a variety of commercial moving and furniture installation services. These services include project management and commercial moving. In addition to office furniture installation, they provide commercial moving and storage services. If you need to install office furniture, contact East Coast's experienced team of movers today! There's no need to stress over the logistics - let us take care of it for you. If you need help finding the best office furniture, call Eastcoast Furniture Services.