The advertisement features a central illustration of a laptop and a smartphone. The laptop screen shows a group of people in a modern office setting, with icons for a globe, a speech bubble, and a 'WWW.' label. A speech bubble above the laptop contains the text 'Ask Aha!'. The smartphone displays a red notification with a yellow bell icon and the text 'Push Notification'. Above the laptop, there are three stylized human figures in green, red, and blue, with speech bubbles above them. The background is a blue gradient with a white circular arc behind the laptop and phone.
