

Community Support - India House Houston

We strive to provide support to the Places to do community service in houston in the Greater Houston area by offering free programs and services. To meet the needs of families in our community, India House provides free programs that address hunger, health and family issues through our food distribution, charity clinic and free legal consultation. The mission of India House is to unite cultures, create bridges, and help the community by bringing resources, education, services, and Indian culture to Houstonians. Over the last 45 years, the Indo-American community has seen incredible growth within the city of Houston. At present there are at least three generations of Indo-Americans living in Houston. It was their collective dream to build a community center to cater to the cultural needs of the community allowing people from all faiths and backgrounds to use our space and showcase diversity.
