

Universities in Australia with Breathtaking Views - The Education Post

We are already aware of Australia's scenic beauty which makes tourists flock the country during holidays both in winters and summers. But did you know that some of Australia's best colleges are also the most beautiful campuses in the world, located in dreamy landscapes and tucked away in the most inviting and picturesque settings?

The Education Post lists down the most beautiful campuses in Australia just for you:

1. University of Sydney

Not only is it one of the best educational institutions in the world, but it is also one of the most enchanting. The castle-like structures and sprawling greenery makes it something straight out of a fairy tale! In this dream-like setting, the college offers UG, PG, masters courses and diplomas across various fields like Science , Architecture, Health and many more.

2. University of Queensland

Once home to big personalities, that have won the Nobel Prize, Academy Award, Fortune 500 CEO titles and prominent government positions, the University of Queensland is a charming campus with open galleries overlooking the central gardens with great places for students to unwind in the vicinity.

3. University of Melbourne

Situated in the heart of one of the most liveable cities in the world, The University of Melbourne is the 2nd oldest university in Australia. Naturally, the architecture maintains old century styles that make it an amazing institution to enrol at. Students have access to the city's best cultural spots while pursuing world-class education in fields like Medicinal Research, Business, Law and more!

4. University of Western Australia

Situated right on the banks of the Swan River, this one can easily top the list of most beautiful campuses in Australia. Students live a near-perfect campus life with easy access to all of the city's comforts and a quick getaway all in the same place. If you have visited this campus you will know what we mean!

5. University of New England

Tucked in a small town between two major cities, this campus has historic buildings that are tourist landmarks in themselves. With an excellent, breezy climate, it offers students a comfortable course of stay equipped with picturesque waterfalls, forests, hiking trails and valleys around the campus.

6. University of Tasmania

Ranked among the top 2 percent of research universities in the world, the University of Tasmania is renowned for its research in Marine and Antarctic life. This beautiful university located on the marine paradise that is Tasmania, ranks among the top 2% of research universities in the world. Right under Mt. Wellington, overlooking the Derwent river, this campus has all the scenic charms students can possibly dream of! World-renowned for its research in Marine & Antarctic life, this university offers many more popular courses like Environment, Medicine, etc.

7. Australian National University (ANU)

Sporting probably the most intimidating alumni list, including 6 Nobel laureates, 49 Rhodes Scholars and 2 Australian Prime Ministers, the Australian National University is located in the national capital, Canberra. Needless to say, the vibrant views of capital city life are always available for students to feast their eyes on. Nothing like the joys of city life, right?

8. University of Adelaide

With some of the most charming buildings in all of Australia, it is a treat just to walk around its lovely campus. The university is situated in the heart of the city and has a sprawling campus that reminds you of charming vintage locales. Go on and visit the college to get a feel of the Adelaidean atmosphere!

9. University of Wollongong

Set along the beautiful coastline of the South Pacific Ocean, this University is a nature lovers paradise! A mere 15 minutes away from clear, sandy beaches, majestic rainforests and awe-inspiring mountains, student life here can be very adventurous!

10. University of New South Wales (UNSW)

New South Wales is a holiday paradise for locals and tourists alike. So naturally international students rank this college as a top destination to study in Australia. Accessible from major weekend and party destinations, you can really live the extravagant student life that you only see in movies!

We hope this university trail will help you on your exploration journey in Australia. Get in touch with us to know more about individual colleges, locations, facilities and more. We would be happy to help.

Source by: The Education Post Lifestyle