

Business Listings Management Using Map Apps!

Business Listings Management Using Map Apps !

Mapping apps are becoming increasingly popular among consumers for various purposes, ranging from initial research to find directions to a business's location. As a prominent provider of GPS Business Listings Management, we have observed a significant increase in proximity-based searches over the years. While big brands tend to dominate general searches, local map searches present a significant opportunity for agencies to add substantial value to their clients.