Why should you buy life insurance?

Life insurance is crucial because it safeguards your family and allows you to provide them a sum that is not taxable when you die. It's also utilized to pay off your home loan and personal loans. As you retire and your company no longer insures you, your personal life insurance accompanies you. If resources are scarce, this insurance will cover your family's income, allowing them to maintain their standard of living.

Source URL: https://bit.ly/3OV1qIE