

14 games with the simultaneous record of 'home run-stealing'

Ohtani recorded his 52nd home run of the season and 52nd stolen base of the season against the Colorado Rockies in the 2024 Major League Baseball (ML) at Dodger Stadium in Los Angeles, California on the 21st (Korea time).

Ohtani broke the ML record for both home runs and stolen bases in a game. By recording both home runs and stolen bases, Ohtani increased his game record to 14, surpassing the 13-game record set by Ricky Henderson of the New York Yankees in 1986.

Ohtani, who played as the first designated hitter on the day, hit a two-run home run in the middle of the fifth inning by hitting Colorado starter Kyle Freeland's 6th pitch of 92.1 miles per hour (about 148.2 kilometers). 토토사이트 추천

In the seventh inning, he made an infield hit to the first base and succeeded in stealing the second base.

Ohtani has already recorded 50 home runs and 50 steals for the first time in ML history on the 20th. Now he is looking at 60 home runs and 60 steals in the remaining eight games of the regular season.

LA Dodgers manager Dave Roberts said, "Ohtani will be looking at the record of 60 home runs and 60 steals," adding, "It's unreal, but I think anything will be possible with Ohtani."
