

Old English Bars in the UK: A Journey Through History and Charm

If you are looking for a place to enjoy a delicious meal, a refreshing drink, and a cozy atmosphere, you might want to visit THE Waggon and Horses, one of the best restaurants and pubs in Radlett, Borehamwood. This old English pub is not only a great venue for families, couples, and larger parties, but also a historical and charming spot that will take you on a journey through time.

THE Waggon and Horses is located on the old A5, Watling Street, which is one of the oldest roads in Britain. It was originally built by the Romans as a military route and later became a major trade route that connected London with Wales and Ireland. Along this road, you can find many old English bars that have witnessed the history and culture of the country.

One of these bars is THE Waggon and Horses, which dates back to the 16th century. It was originally a coaching inn that provided accommodation and refreshments for travellers and horses. The name of the pub comes from the wagons that used to transport goods and people along Watling Street. The pub has been renovated several times over the years, but it has retained its original features and character, such as the old-world beams and two open fireplaces.

The pub is also surrounded by fields between the villages of Radlett & Elstree, which offer a beautiful view and a peaceful setting. You can enjoy the scenery from the spacious garden or the heated patio area, which are perfect for outdoor dining and drinking. The pub also has a large car park and a children's play area, making it an ideal destination for families.

The food and drink at THE Waggon and Horses are also top-notch. The pub serves a variety of dishes, from traditional British classics to modern European cuisine, using fresh and local ingredients. You can also find a selection of real ales, quality wine, cocktails, and soft drinks to suit your taste. The pub also caters to special occasions, such as birthdays, anniversaries, weddings, and corporate events. You can hire all or part of the pub for your private function, and enjoy the personalized service and attention to detail.

THE Waggon and Horses is more than just a restaurant and pub. It is also a place where you can experience the history and charm of old English bars in the UK. Whether you are looking for a relaxing lunch, a romantic dinner, or a fun night out with friends, you will find something to suit your mood and budget at this English pub in England. So why not book a table today and discover why THE Waggon and Horses is one of the best pubs in Hertfordshire?