How does one revoke a power of attorney?

A power of attorney is a legal document that grants one person (the agent) the authority to act on behalf of another person (the principal) in legal or financial matters, either broadly or for specific tasks.

To revoke a power of attorney, create a written revocation document, sign it, and have it notarized. Notify the agent and any relevant institutions of the revocation. File the revocation with any applicable authorities, such as a court or county recorder, to ensure it is legally recognized.
