ISO 9001:2015

Graphler Technology Solutions is proud to be awarded ISO 9001:2015 certification, an internationally recognized standard that ensures our services such as Product Design, 3D CAD, Drafting, CFD, FEA simulations, Product animations and Graphics which meets the R&D requirements of our clients through an effective quality management system (QMS). We have developed and implemented our quality management system (QMS) in order to improve the overall performance, maintain a high-level of quality and strong customer centric services and provide an effective base for sustainable development and future initiatives. Our people's decision to work towards ISO 9001:2015 accreditation demonstrates the commitment to providing high-quality engineering services to our clients and our ongoing investment in technology and infrastructure.

To become ISO 9001 compliant, Graphler Technology Solutions (GTS) underwent an intense evaluation process that included quality management system development, a management system documentation review, internal audit and upon initial assessment by the external audit agency which was very successful as no non-conformances were identified.

To become ISO 9001 compliant, Graphler Technology Solutions (GTS) underwent an intense evaluation process that included quality management system development, a management system documentation review, internal audit and upon initial assessment by the external audit agency which was very successful as no non-conformances were identified.

In achieving compliance with the ISO standard requirements we chose IAS – International Accreditation Service – a global leader in quality Inspection and Certification, delivering high-quality services to help companies to meet the growing challenges of quality, safety, data security, environmental protection, and social responsibility. IAS through a local third-party audit team has reviewed our management system and provided certification. It provides our clients with independent assurance that our commitment to quality is an integral part of everything we do.

The ISO 9001:2015 certification is the assurance that we have robust, clearly defined procedures in place in all our services such as Product design, 3D CAD, Drafting, CFD, FEA simulations, Product Animations and Graphics. We also define our procedures in risk management, handling of documents, data security and strong client handling processes. It is worth mentioning that all of the mentioned processes inside the company are managed using a state-of-the-art ERP system. Information, which is constantly collected there gives us valuable insights about the statistics of that we produce and processes we carry out every day. Also, it not just ensures 100% traceability of issues, by converting customer feedback into project related tasks for our Project management team.

We henceforth can proudly and safely state that Graphler Technology Solutions (GTS) is built with quality and continuous improvement in business processes. We have integrated the attitude of quality in our daily work and continuously challenge ourselves to improve the quality management system (QMS) to provide services that meet or exceed the needs and expectations of our clients, and always complying with their specifications and regulations.
