The 2024 MotoGP Pre-season Test at the Sepang Circuit has presented a number of surprises that have attracted the attention of motorbike racing fans. On the first day of testing which started at 13.00 WIB, Jorge Martin from the Pramac Ducati team showed impressive consistency, while world champion Marc Marquez experienced a significant drop in his ranking.

Jorge Martin put in a brilliant performance by leading in both free practice sessions on the first day of testing. His fastest time recorded in the second afternoon session, namely 1 minute 57.951 seconds, proved his dominance on the track.
