

When I Went To Airport To Receive My Mom

My mother was living in New Zealand and I was staying in New York because of my job. Now I have been a citizen of the United States so I told my mother to shift to New York so that we can live together.

But I by mistake booked the wrong flight for her. Then I visited the United Airlines Change Flight website page and got to know about the cancellation policy. After that I cancelled the wrong flight and booked another flight ticket for my mother.

Her flight date was on 12th November and I was ready to receive her at the airport. My mother was all alone in New Zealand and she was always sad that I was not with her. So I decided that we both will live together.

So according to US government policies I have completed all the formalities. It took some time but the work was done and I was able to call my mom to New York. When she got to know that I had booked flight tickets for her to New York, she was so happy and excited to meet me.

When she saw me at the airport she hugged me and then we went to our home and lived together.
