

Best Accidental Counsellor Program

The field of suicide prevention programs in Australia is one in which we are world leaders. We believe that a world without suicide can be achieved through various accidental counsellor program if we all work together toward a shared objective. We are an organization run by volunteers who have all been touched by the tragedy of suicide in some way. Many influential and smaller organizations working to reduce suicide through workshops are members of our group, as are practitioners, researchers, and community leaders. Together, we can save more lives by avoiding suicide, so we must find a way to speak with one voice.
