

Luxurious Student Accommodation Birmingham

Birmingham, “the second city of England”, is one of the most popular student destinations in the UK. It's simple to forget that this dynamic city has its roots in manufacturing when there is a thriving nightlife, a wide variety of eateries, and shopping opportunities to suit everyone. In fact, it continues to be the country's industrial centre today. Birmingham is an attractive option if you want to attend university in a big city but don't like the high expense of living in London. It has a charming, down-to-earth vibe and a very cosmopolitan mix of cultures and ethnicities. So, if you're planning on studying in this captivating city, you must be hunting for a student accommodation. Worry not, though. Casita has got you covered! We have plenty of student accommodation in Birmingham, including ones with some extra bling wink wink. Come on, let's dive in!

1. The Heights Roost

This student housing in Birmingham offers studios and en-suites. It has a wide range of amenities and services for students to use. Staff on-site around-the-clock, contents insurance, bike storage, secure parking for an additional fee, on-site laundry facilities, and high-speed Wi-Fi are some of the amenities offered. Additionally, the building has a number of common areas where residents may unwind. These areas include a common room where residents can gather and socialise, a gym where you can work out every day, and an outdoor courtyard where you can participate in frequently organised events and other outdoor activities. The building also contains a study area where students can catch up on their studies in a tranquil and quiet setting. On foot, Aston University is 11 minutes away, Birmingham City University is 13 minutes, and University College Birmingham is 20 minutes.

2. ONYX

ONYX is another luxurious student accommodation in Birmingham with both en-suites and studios. This student accommodation features all-inclusive bills, CCTV security, a security team, and an on-site residents' team. There is also on-site laundry, bike storage, Wi-Fi, and broadband. You can hang out with your pals in the lounge or the dining area. You can also relax and have fun in the movie theatre or the games room. There are also occasional resident activities where you can mingle with your colleagues. You can work out in the on-site gym or take in the scenery from the roof terrace, courtyard, or sky lounge. Aston University is only 7 minutes away on foot, Birmingham City University is 12 minutes, and University College Birmingham is 17 minutes.

3. Compass

Compass is a Birmingham student accommodation that offers studio rooms. This residence provides all-inclusive utility bills, contents insurance, round-the-clock assistance, and on-site management. Along with on-site laundry, secure bike storage, secure mail storage, and lightning-fast Wi-Fi, the property is secured. There is a coworking area where you can finish up work or school assignments, a gym on site where you can work out, and an outdoor terrace where you can chill and take in the scenery. Aston University is ten minutes by foot away, University College Birmingham is eight minutes by car, Ulster University Birmingham is 21 minutes by ride, and Birmingham City University is nine minutes by foot.

4. Globe Works

Birmingham's Globe Works provides studios and en-suite rooms for students. It offers its residents a wide range of facilities and amenities. These include on-site maintenance, postal services, contents insurance, key access, CCTV security, and all-inclusive bills. The property provides high-speed Wi-Fi, bike storage, on-site laundry, and round-the-clock assistance. You have access to a number of shared spaces at the property, including a study area where you can work quietly and peacefully, an on-site gym for your fitness, and a common area where you can socialise with other residents and make new friends. Additionally, the building hosts well-being events regularly. It also features a theatre, a TV room where you can watch movies or sports, and a patio with outdoor views where you can relax or have a picnic with friends. Eleven minutes on foot will get you to Aston University. It takes 16 minutes to walk to Birmingham City University and University College Birmingham.

5. Canalside

Canalside provides students with en-suites and studios. Full hospitality and maintenance services are provided in the building, and a free shuttle bus connects Birmingham City University, University of Law, and Aston University. Bills are included, there is Wi-Fi throughout, safe bike storage, a gym, an on-site laundry facility, a management staff, a secure entrance system, and round-the-clock CCTV in this student housing in Birmingham. The distance to University College Birmingham from the location is about five minutes by vehicle.

6. Lakeside Unite

Lakeside Unite is a student housing in Birmingham with en-suite rooms. The building offers a variety of amenities and services. Wi-Fi, all expenses covered, bike storage, printing, laundry, recycling, a vending machine, and a common space are available amenities. Additional services include an on-site service team, secure access, maintenance support, a fire system, CCTV, 24/7 assistance, contents insurance, and maintenance support. The University of Birmingham is a nine-minute drive away, Birmingham City University is an 11-minute walk away, Aston University is a six-minute walk away, Ulster University- Birmingham Campus is a nine-minute drive away, and University College Birmingham is likewise a nine-minute drive away.

7. iQ Broderick House

iQ Broderick House student accommodation in Birmingham provides three different room categories for students: studios, en-suites, and penthouses. The building provides a wide range of amenities and services. Wi-Fi, safe bike storage, laundry, a communal social area, and all bills included are all covered. Other amenities include CCTV, round-the-clock security, an on-site gym, insurance, accessibility, a common games room, an emergency response system, and a movie theatre. The building is 13 minutes away from the Ulster University Birmingham Campus, three minutes away from Birmingham City University: City South Campus, and eight minutes away from Aston University.

There you have it! These were the most luxurious options for student accommodation in Birmingham!

So, which one is it going to be?