1) Using produce as a homemade sex toy

The most obvious solution to the question of how to build homemade sex toys is right in front of you right now: VEGETABLES! There is undoubtedly a reason why mother nature created them in that way. Cucumbers, carrots, zucchini, and many other vegetables are excellent for penetrating. Use them with a condom or carefully wash them in hot water before using them, since they are protected from bacteria and chemicals that could harm your vagina.

2) Hairbrush as Sex Toy

The backside of a hairbrush may simply be the maximum used homemade sex toy ever. Be certain to apply a spherical fashioned brush and ease it very well earlier than and after each use with moderate antibacterial cleaning soap and lukewarm water. Different hair brushes have different textures and shapes so don't be shy to test them all!

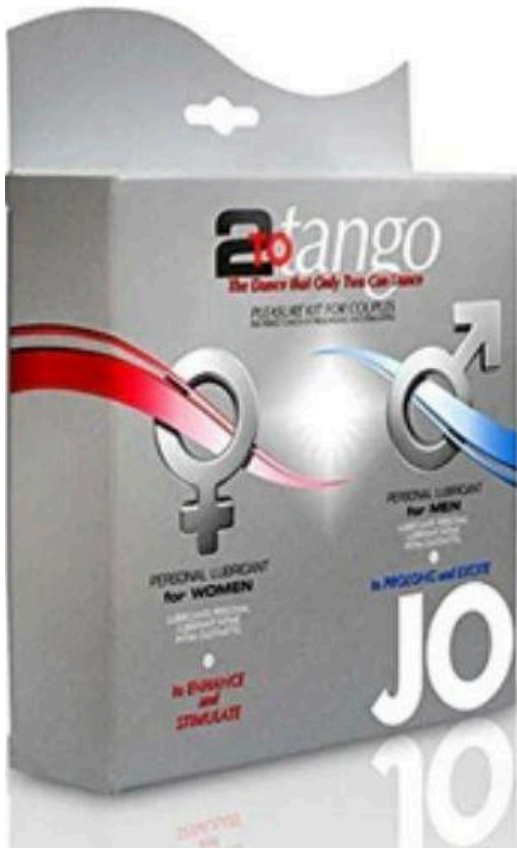

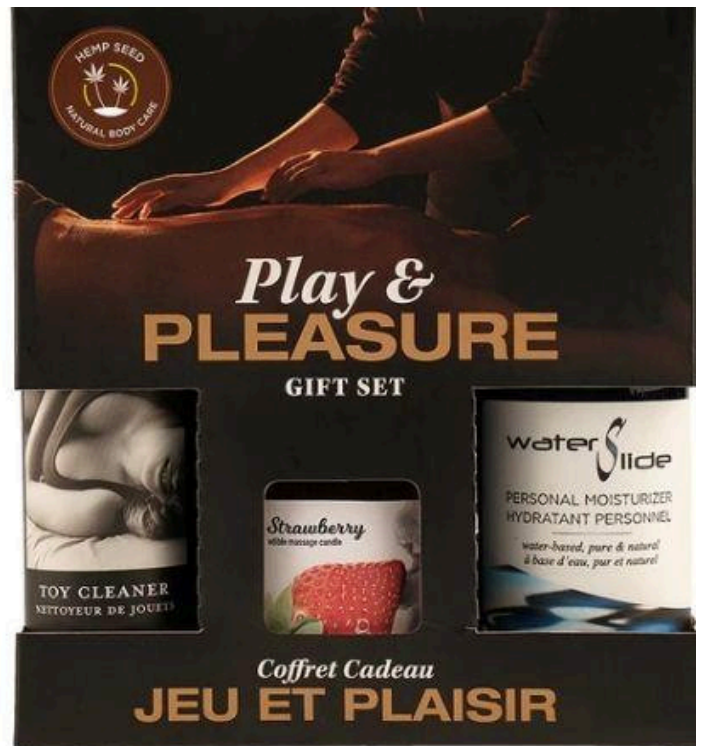

3) Female Sex Toy at Home: Electric Toothbrush

If you ever feel a little sexier, try using an electric toothbrush. Try using an electronic toothbrush to vibrate your clit, followed by a regular toothbrush or one of the handmade sex toys listed above for penetration. You could only be able to experience an explosive orgasm, to put it mildly.

4) Home Sex Toy: Showerhead

This is the classic handcrafted sex object for women that you may use whenever you want. Even if you're outside and tempted to indulge in a little sin, find a loo with a showerhead or a jet spray nearby and pay attention to the pressure in your clit. Even better, you can experiment with the tension by changing the intensity. You won't even have to worry about cleaning up as you'll feel rejuvenated.

5) Candles and clips/paper pins as Homemade Sex Toys

If you enjoy playing with your nipples, you may get the same effect by using paper clips or cloth clips you already have at home. Wax play is another amusing way to use hot candle wax. Pour a small amount over your foot first to see whether you can manage it, and then move on to experimenting with it over the rest of your frame. When experimenting with these devices, put your safety first and don't push yourself above your comfort zone.
