How Can Packaging Solutions Be Implemented Using an ERP System?

The integration of packaging solutions with ERP systems is a complex task that requires careful handling and proactive solutions. It involves customization requirements, data integration complexity, scalability concerns, maintaining data accuracy, and addressing compliance and regulatory challenges. To overcome these, companies should choose ERP software with strong customization options or create customized modules for specific packaging industries.

Source: Overcoming Challenges in Implementing Packaging Solutions With ERP