

Ana Cruz Kayne Proudly Represents the Philippines: The Story Behind Her Filipiniana Dress in the Bar

Recently, everyone has gone pink as they go along with the hype of the newly released fantasy comedy film Barbie. On the other hand, Ana Cruz Kayne made an exciting twist to the public by showcasing a unique Filipiniana dress with a Barbie-inspired style and design. The can be shown proudly clad in her pink Filipiniana.

That said, the Filipiniana continues to remain in the trends. Countless people from different walks of life have already flaunted the beauty and authenticity of Filipiniana dresses. Additionally, various personalities have enjoyed integrating different styles and details to enhance the traditional Filipiniana outfit. Take an interesting overview as we glimpse how Ana Cruz Kayne did an excellent job showcasing Filipino pride, Filipiniana.