

Open Journal Theme

OJT team has partnered with global publishers from small to leading publishers to help them handle technical aspect of OJS and improve their indexing rank since 2016. Our vision is to allow any publisher to focus on their academic research and improve its reach rather than hurdled by the non-essential technical issue.

Browse our numerous product and service to help your journal elevate to the next level including theme, plugin and indexing tools.

Hundreds of reputable publishers from Q1 rank to newcomers trust and collaborate with our team to achieve their best potential, it is time for you now!
