

What is ICSI treatment?

ICSI (Intracytoplasmic Sperm Injection) is a step in the IVF treatment cycle performed to ensure fertilization of the egg and the sperm in certain cases. In this process a single sperm is chosen, immobilized and then injected carefully into an egg under a high powered microscope using a device called a manipulator.

read more : <https://excelivf.com/icsi-treatment/>

