

Vasota Fort

Moving southeast of Satara district, Vasota Fort stands tall amidst the lush greenery of the Koyna Wildlife Sanctuary. Constructed in the 16th century, Vasota Fort has a history intertwined with the Maratha empire. Initially, it served as a prison for captured traitors and enemies, reflecting its strategic importance. The fort's architecture showcases the engineering marvels of its time, with sturdy walls and bastions that have withstood centuries of weathering. For more, visit the link below:
