Application Process of New Pilot Programs for Caregivers

The application process for the New Pilot Programs is designed to be straightforward and applicant-friendly. Here's a step-by-step guide:

STEP 01

Gather Documentation:

Collect all necessary documents, including proof of job offer, work experience, language proficiency, and education credentials. Ensure all documents are accurate and up-to-date.

STEP 02

Complete the Application Package:

Download and complete the application forms from the official Immigration, Refugees, and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) website. Make sure to include all required supporting documents.

STEP 03

Submit the Application:

Submit the completed application package by mail to the address provided by IRCC. Ensure all forms are signed and dated correctly to avoid delays.

STEP 04

Biometrics and Additional Information:

After submitting your application, you may be required to provide biometrics (fingerprints and photo) and additional information as requested by IRCC.

STEP 05

Wait for Processing:

The processing time for these applications can vary, but you will be informed of the decision once it is made. If approved, you and your family members can then proceed to obtain permanent residency.

Work and Gain Experience:

STEP 06

: If you are applying from outside Canada, you will receive a work permit to come and work in Canada and gain the required 24 months of work experience.
