

The Goal Is V4

Seoul SK Knights unveiled slogans and posters to mark the opening of professional basketball in Jeonggwanjang, 2023-2024.

With a commitment to lead a new culture through the combination of sports and ESG, Seoul SK Knights said, "Play for US! "Change for Earth!" is the slogan.

Ahead of this season, the Seoul SK Knights will try again to become the champion in two seasons by reinforcing their strength, including recruiting FA Oh Se-geun, renewing contracts with existing foreign players such as Jamil Warney and Leon Williams, recruiting Gomez Dilliano in the Asian quarter and Ahn Young-joon, who will be discharged in November.

Following an away game in Anyang on October 21, the SK Knights will begin the season with a home game against Suwon KT at Jamsil Student Gymnasium at 2 p.m. on the 22nd. The opening game of the day will feature an upgraded intro show from last season, and in addition to SK Knights' specialized stunting cheerleaders, a new high-teen cheerleaders team will be operated to introduce a new cheering culture. In addition, various prizes will be presented to fans through draws and events during the game. 스포츠투투

After the game, the entire team will attend the opening game review and the 2023-2024 SK Knights' kickoff ceremony to reveal their determination to start the season.

At the launching ceremony, a lucky draw event will be held along with recreation for fans attending to have time to communicate with fans.
