You can start making money on the site in a variety of methods, most of which centre on producing great video content. Here are a few of the well-known YouTube revenue sources:

Google Ads

Joining the YouTube Partner programme is the first step in earning money on the platform. Through partnerships, content producers can use exclusive features, such the opportunity to earn money from their videos using Google AdSense. Content producers need at least 1,000 subscribers and 4,000 hours of total viewing time over the previous 12 months in order to be eligible.

Through pre-roll, display, and other ad types, YouTube makes money from videos. Based on clicks and impressions, advertisers are paid. YouTube splits this revenue with the content producer at a rate of 55% to 45%. Advertising regulations must be followed by content producers. Ads won't be displayed next to content that is violent, pornographic, or deals with other topics. This can involve talking about delicate news stories.

How Much Money Do YouTubers Make Every 1,000 Views?

A YouTuber can make about \$18 per 1,000 ad views, or $3 to $5 per 1,000 video views, with the average YouTube pay rate hanging between $0.01 and $0.03 for an ad view. According to Forbes, a YouTuber can earn roughly \$5 for every 1,000 video views if they have top talent. Having said that, starting a YouTube channel may be a terrific side business, especially if you create interesting video that draws in plenty of viewers. However, getting here can be a challenge; we'll talk more about that in a moment.

How Much Money Can a YouTuber Make Per Video?

The amount of money a YouTuber can make per video relies on a number of variables, including the quantity of Google adverts that are presented over the course of the video. A YouTube video with 1,000,000 views can earn upwards of $5,000 using Forbes' projected pay rate of \$5 per 1,000 views, making becoming a modern-day influencer a quite profitable career! Although these are estimations, as was already mentioned, some YouTubers may earn more or less based on the ad's quality, click-through rate, and other variables. It's vital to remember that this industry is also expanding quickly. By the end of 2022, social video ad expenditure will rise by 20.1%, per an eMarketer report. That is an increase of \$24.35 billion.

Advertising Revenue

Given that Google controls YouTube, it is not surprising that signing up for Google AdSense and adding advertisements to your videos has never been simpler. Every person who watches your movie will see various advertising since they are based on their web browsing history (have you ever puzzled why you keep seeing ads for products you have already looked at online?).

Despite the fact that it may seem like free money, the great majority of people who sign up for AdSense make little to no money from it. You first split the advertiser's funds with Google. It appears that Google retains roughly 45% of what marketer's pay, despite the fact that this is not explicitly stated. In practise, you'll make between $1 and $2 for every 1000 views (CPM). This rate fluctuates frequently. To be counted as a "view," someone must watch the advertisement in its entirety rather than skipping it. Another choice is to place pay per click (CPC) advertisements on your YouTube page, although this obviously depends on viewers clicking your ads.

Earning Rewards as a YouTube Partner

Although becoming a YouTube partner doesn't directly pay you, it does give you access to tools that make it simpler to do so.

Technically, the moment you start to monetize your content and start to share ad revenue with YouTube, you are considered a YouTube Partner. You now have access to detailed information regarding your viewers' ad clicks. A few other partner advantages are also yours, including the power to stream Google Hangouts and create your own custom thumbnails. YouTube promotes its YouTube Partners even more and includes them in several offline and online advertising campaigns worldwide.

Once you reach a certain number of subscribers, you get exclusive framed play buttons for your website: a framed silver play button for 100,000 subscribers, and a framed gold play button for 1,000,000 subscribers. The more subscribers you have, the more tools and community support you get.

Being a YouTube Partner provides a number of benefits, one of which is the retention of your copyright for any uploaded videos (assuming you correctly hold it in the first place). It is not widely recognised, but if you are not a YouTube Partner, you give YouTube permission to use your videos however they see fit.

Your agreement with the YouTube Partner Program is non-exclusive. As a result, there is no issue if you decide to publish content and monetise it on other video sites as well. YouTube does not impose any limitations on where you can load and submit content.

Make A Content Strategy for YouTube

Even though you already know how to create a YouTube channel and have selected a relevant subject, your channel won't succeed on YouTube without a content strategy.

You must first produce videos that are worthwhile for sharing. Since your channel won't be accessible to a wider audience if people don't like and share your content. Here's how you develop the ideal YouTube content strategy:

- Maintain consistency: You must maintain consistency in your YouTube video production technique. All prominent YouTubers maintain consistency throughout their channels. Determine the number of videos to upload each week and the best time to do it. Vloggers like David Dobrik only post once or twice a week, in contrast to everyday uploaders on YouTube like PewDiePie, SSSniperWolf, Philip DeFranco, and Emergency. This suggests that you only need to be consistent with your uploads; you don't need to upload every day.
- Create a feeling of community: The best thing about YouTube is that it enables you to do so for all companies, with each YouTuber having the power to amass a devoted Read the comments, respond whenever you can, engage with your viewers, and find out what they want to see in the next video. Simply put, engage your audience as much as you can through communication and interaction.

- Create a series of videos: Take into account producing a number of YouTube videos. Your viewers will remain devoted to your channel as a result. This clever tactic is used by well-known YouTubers like MKBHD, Dude Perfect, PewDiePie, and Felipe Neto to keep their fans coming back for more.
- Work together: Working with other YouTubers can give you some great ideas for new content. For instance, popular YouTuber Shane Dawson recently worked with Eugenia Cooney (another YouTuber) on a video that went viral. Collaboration enables you to draw in the audience of the person with whom you are working, and vice versa. It benefits both parties.
- Make your films visible to searchers by optimising for search. It's bad news for your channel if they are unable to locate you during their searches. Therefore, you must include precise keywords in the title, a well-written description, pertinent tags, etc. if you want to rank higher on YouTube. Additionally, a lot of viewers are drawn to thumbnails, so be sure to create one specifically for each video.
- It's time to make use of the greatest tools at your disposal after you have a sound content strategy for your channel.
