GETTING A TRUCK LICENCE IN SYDNEY MADE EASY

Highway Truck Driving School is Sydney's leader in training in Heavy Vehicle Licence Classes. We have a range of vehicles available in automatic, synchromesh manual and road ranger (constant mesh) gearboxes.

At our Sydney truck driving school, we help potential truck learners to get a truck licence and become confident drivers. We train and assess in the most popular heavy vehicle licence courses:

GETTING A HR, HC, MC LICENCE MADE EASY

Our meticulously planned courses assist in transforming inexperienced drivers into expert and confident drivers. HR licence for driving a three-axle bus, a police rescue truck, a ten-wheeler, a large truck and trailer weighing no more than nine tonnes, and an articulated bus. HC licence for driving Articulated trucks having three or more axles, Heavy rigid vehicle trailer combinations, including unladen dolly, with three or more axles, and any towed trailer with a GVM greater than nine tonnes. MC licence is for vehicles capable of pulling multiple trailers. We guarantee that you will be successful on your first attempt.

At Highway Truck Driving School Pty Ltd, we offer truck training of high standards. HR licence sydney allows you to drive heavy vehicles with 3 or more axles and a gross vehicle mass greater than 8,000 kg
