

7 Destinations in South India for a Perfect Winter Vacation

Travellers go to South India during this time as that is the best season for people who want peace and fresh air. You can choose from many areas in the south of India where you can have a memorable winter holiday if you are into history, like the outdoors, or simply wish to relax in a quiet location during your holiday. Any one of these 7 thrilling places is the best to spend your winter vacation.

Ooty ,Tamil Nadu:

Ooty Hill Station located in the Nilgiri Hills is known for its peaceful climate and pristine nature, thereby presenting an ideal destination. Visit the old Nilgiri Mountain Railway, take a walk through the botanical garden, and experience the serene feeling while spending your vacation here.

Munnar, Kerala:

The town Munnar in Kerala is well known for its expansive tea gardens and attracts nature lovers. Winter offers a refreshing cool to the air, perfect for hiking to admire the scenery, spice plantations and the hills of green.

Kodaikanal, Tamil Nadu:

Kodaikanal, also known as “the princess of hill stations”, is decorated with forests, lakes, and grasslands. Enjoy the Kodaikanal lake ride, trek to the Dolphin’s nose, or just take in the cool, mountain air.

Get in touch with the best tour operators in Coimbatore for professional suggestions in order to plan your favourite spots.

Hampi, Karnataka:

Winter retreat for history enthusiasts in the ruins of Hampi. Wander through the landscape filled with rocks, exploring ancient temples, bazaars, and the enchanting imperial architecture of the Vijayanagara Empire.

Alleppey, Kerala:

The winter season is quite fascinating when one decides to experience the backwaters of Kerala in Alleppey. A cruise on a houseboat, see traditional Kerala living along the waterways, and taste local dishes.

Yercaud, Tamil Nadu:

Yercaud, tucked in the Eastern Ghats, it is famous for its lush green scenery and its orange groves. Visit Yercaud Lake, hike up to Lady's Seat viewpoint and relax in this serene hilly spot.

Thekkady, Kerala:

Thekkady is a heaven for wildlife enthusiasts. Explore Periyar National Park and visit Periyar Lake for boat ride, walk around spice plantations, and chill out in the winter in the midst of Western Ghats.

Coimbatoretour is offering best Tour packages from Coimbatore to satisfy all your travel expectations.

In conclusion,

You will therefore find South India as the best place for your winter escape this year. These destinations are ideal if you want to go for misty hills, peaceful beaches or cultural experiences. The winter holiday will be really special. Carry your luggage, embrace the cool winds, and make beautiful moments to last.

Plan your vacation with Coimbatoretour.com, we also provide the best Pilgrimage tour packages from Coimbatore.