The illustration shows a modern office environment with three people interacting with a large digital interface. The interface displays a code editor, a document with a checkmark, a line graph, and a pie chart. Surrounding the interface are various icons: a money bag, a stack of bills, a price tag, a hand holding a coin, a hand holding a stack of bills, a hand holding a coin, and a hand holding a stack of bills. The background is a light blue gradient.
