Understanding 2D Animation Process and Principles

2D animation is performed by frame-shifting, in which images follow each other in sequence. The process includes three stages pre-production, production and post-production. Know more about its tips, tricks, principles or contact best animation studio in Vadodara for desired results.

Source: Process and Principles of 2D Animation you Should Know