

Landing on the clay

Oklahoma's Choctaw Nation held a groundbreaking ceremony for its latest gaming property Choctaw Landing on June 14, 2022, in Hoka Town, Oklahoma. Entertainment and resort development is located near Broken Bow Lake and Beaver Bend State Park, which are popular holiday destinations in the southeastern part of the state.

The four-story, 200,000-square-foot facility reportedly has a total investment of $238 million and includes 100 hotel rooms, 600 slot machines, eight table games, several restaurants and bars, a swimming pool, an outdoor venue with an amphitheater, a beer garden and a family-friendly gaming area. 경마사이트

The tribe also plans to add 12,000 square feet of commercial facilities to its grassland landing, offering a small grocery store/market, three dining options, and a fuel station with 24 pumps.