

Son Heung-min once played with the captain's armband around his arm during the pre-season under Jose

If Kane leaves Tottenham, this time he is likely to play as captain for the entire Premier League season. If you look at the trend of the European transfer market this summer, you are more and more likely to see "Tottenham captain" Son Heung-min following the national team, which was finally confirmed as Kane left for Bayern Munich. Tottenham captain announced a new era by leading the victory in front of home fans.

Park Ji-sung is the second Korean Premier League player to wear the captain's armband at the Queens Park Rangers (QPR) when he was a player. Son Heung-min said on the club's official channel, "Looking back in the past, there have always been fantastic claims. I learned so much on and off the field. Lloris and Kane are Tottenham legends. They fought for the players and devoted themselves to the team. I've learned so much from them that I'm trying to do the same," he said.

He recovered completely from sports hernia surgery, and wore the Tottenham captain's armband. September was Son Heung-min's one-man show in name and reality. Son Heung-min has considerable value. Tottenham is considered a favorite to win as it has not lost a game since the opening. "BBC" said, "Tottenham emerged as the favorite in eight games after coach Andrzej Postecoglou took over." Now, we are a team that will compete for the top." But Tottenham's backbencher is suspected. Tottenham has not been in a relationship with the top for a long time, as the team that has won the championship continues to do. Even if the pace is good right now, it is doubtful that there are many cards to overcome the crisis at a time when the crisis is facing. 슬롯머신

Bakari Sanha from Arsenal also said on "Paddy Power" that "Tottenham has no player who will play an important role in the championship competition except Son Heung-min." It is argued that Son Heung-min is the only ace who can overcome the crisis by himself. As such, Son Heung-min is Tottenham's only ace.
