

Miracle Mile Shop Opens New Food Group

Miracle Mile Shops, adjacent to Planet Hollywood Las Vegas, is excited to announce the official plans for Miracle Eats, the shopping center's new food collection, which is set to open in the fourth quarter of 2024. The court near the south entrance of Miracle Mile Shops will be completely redesigned for Miracle Eats and will invite guests to relax and recharge with 11 delicious food and drink options.

Miracle Eats is announced following Miracle Mile Shop's recently completed renovations, including improvements to floors, lighting and furniture, upgraded LED screens, and other technologies, the addition of retail options on demand, and the introduction of a new projection-mapping display, The Lost City Show. Miracle Eats Restaurant will join Miracle Mile Shop's extensive roster of restaurants, such as the acclaimed Rosa Mexicano, which celebrated its grand opening last month. 온라인카지노사이트

"To complement the recent renovation of the Miracle Mile Shop, we are excited to introduce a new unique and popular restaurant in the heart of the Las Vegas Strip," said Robert Buchanan, vice president and general manager of the Miracle Mile Shop. "We are always looking for ways to boost our offerings, and Miracle Eats will definitely be a popular gathering place for both locals and tourists."

Restaurants coming to Miracle Eats will be announced later.
