Korea Expressway Corporation beat the women's Pepper Savings Bank 3-1 (26-24 25-19 25-17) in the away game of the "Dodram 2023-2024 V-League" at Pepper Stadium in Gwangju on the 3rd.

Korea Expressway Corporation, which lost at the Heungkuk Life Insurance match in Gyeonggi Province, rebounded with a victory on the day. Korea Expressway Corporation, which ranked sixth with nine wins, 17 losses and 28 points, narrowed the gap with IBK (33 points).

Pepper Savings Bank has lost 19 consecutive games. It is close to 20 consecutive losses, the most consecutive losses tied in the women's V-League during the 2021-2022 season and the 2022-2023 season. With two wins, 24 losses and seven points, it ranked seventh, the lowest in the league.

Bukirich of Korea Expressway Corporation scored 18 points including four back attacks, while Bae Yuna scored 17 points including four serve aces and two blocks. Tanaka scored 13 points. Kim Se-bin, the Rookie of the Year nominee, scored 11 points, the most by a single player in a game, including four blocks.

At Pepper Savings Bank, Park Jung-ah scored 15 points, Lee Han-bi scored 13, Phillips scored 12, and Yasmin scored 10, but they did not prevent the team's defeat.

From the first set, there was a close deuce match. At 24-24, Bae Yuna blocked Yasmin's open attack, and the Korea Expressway Corporation reached the set point. As Yasmin's subsequent open attack went out, the Korea Expressway Corporation took the first set.

In the second set, Korea Expressway Corporation took the lead. While Pepper Savings Bank's Yasmin, Park Jung-ah and Lee Han-bi both remained at the 30 percent level of success rate, Korea Expressway Corporation won the set with ease with all of them, including Bukirich scoring evenly.

Pepper Savings Bank, which was on the verge of losing, counterattacked in the third set. Phillips scored five points with a 100% success rate of fast attack, and Lee Han-bi scored four points. Korea Expressway Corporation's success rate of attack fell below 30%. Pepper Savings Bank won the set with ease.

As Bae Yuna scored consecutive points in the middle of the fourth set, Korea Expressway Corporation led the way. Rookie middle blocker Kim Se-bin scored the most points in a single individual game. Pepper Savings Bank failed to catch up with the team's flagship player Yasmeeen due to shoulder pain, and Korea Expressway Corporation won.
