

Friability Tester LMFRT-A201

Labmate Friability Tester is a single path friability and abrasion testing instrument equipped with two cylinders, each with the depth of 39 mm. The number of turns and rotating speed enables synchronous operation and automatic shut-off. The LCD for the instrument displays the pre-set and the real-time value through time division.

Friability Tester price,
Friability Tester brands,
Friability Tester supplier