

Tokenization Market Forecast to 2029 - Covid-19 Impact and Global Analysis - by Type; Deployment

INTROSPECTIVE MARKET RESEARCH

Global Tokenization Market was valued at USD 1.61 billion in 2021 and is expected to reach USD 5.25 billion by the year 2028, at a CAGR of 18.4%.

Tokenization is the conversion of sensitive data into non-sensitive tokens that may be used in a database or internal system without being exposed to the public. By replacing sensitive data with an irrelevant value of the same length and format as the original, tokenization may be used to protect it. After then, the tokens are sent to an organization's internal systems for usage, while the original data is stored in a token vault. Unlike encrypted data, tokenized data is impenetrable and irreversible. This distinction is crucial: tokens cannot be restored to their original form since the token and its original number have no mathematical relationship. To put it another way, a token is a piece of data that acts as a stand-in for a more valuable piece of data. The need for payment security grew in tandem with the amount of credit card fraud events. Contactless payments and tokenization-as-a-service approaches are two examples of payment security components. During the projected period, such factors are likely to fuel market growth.
